His lecture on "What People Drink and How they Make it," is spoken of as being especially startling and powerful. Mr. Johnson is expected on the steamer, and is to spend a month in Honolulu and this kingdom, laboring in the temperance cause under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Hallenbeck is also expected on the same steamer. WE UNDERSTAND that Dr. McGrew has negotiated the purchase of Mr. Herbert's interest in the lease of the Hawaiian Hotel, and will receive an extended lease from the Government. Although the property belongs to the Government, the new lease has not been offered to public competition, because the terms of the ordinance under which the hotel was built does not require it.
